Creekside Baptist is looking for an energetic Pastor to continue growing our church with emphasis on reaching families with children and working with our Associate Pastor. The candidate should have a proven track record of increasing membership within his current church with several years of experience.

The Pastor should deliver inspiring and evangelistic messages to our members. As a teacher for our membership, he should also have the administrative skills to lead our church. He would lead our worship services, as well as oversee all communication plans and execution. We're looking for a real 'multiplier' who can develop our worship ministry by identifying and training worship leaders and teachers.
