Biblical Hospitality: Come On In!	Led by Emily Albright
Showing hospitality is an amazing privilege and duty for followers of Christ, but that doesn't mean that it's easy! In this breakout session, we will look at what the Bible says about hospitality and explore some fun and practical ways to welcome others into our hearts and homes	Emily is the pastor's wife at Huntington Baptist Church in Huntington, Indiana. She has been married to Amos for 30 years in June, and they just celebrated 25 years of service at their church. Emily has recently become an empty-nester, with the youngest of 4 kids leaving for college last fall.
Dynamics of Discipleship	Led by Courtney Veasey
A relationship of teaching and learning between fellow followers of Christ, otherwise called discipleship, is a vital part of the Christian life. This session will cover principles of discipleship dynamics based on the biblical model. Attendees will gain equipping to lead both individuals and groups--whether in the church, the coffeeshop, or the car--to greater maturity in their journeys with Jesus.	Courtney is the founder of Brunch Ministries, through which serves as a Bible teacher to groups of women and teenage girls in conference and retreat events. Courtney also serves as a Lifeway Women Leadership Trainer with Lifeway Christian Resources and is a partner artist with Prison Fellowship Hope Events. She has served in local church and parachurch ministries in Florida, Louisiana, South Carolina, and California. From 2014-2018 Courtney was the Director of Women's Academic Programs and a member of the faculty at the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. She is a graduate of Florida Southern College (BA), New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary (MDiv; PhD), and Gateway Seminary (ThM). Her home base is in Florida where she loves having fun with friends and family, cheering for the Seminoles, and enjoying time outdoors.
Exploring Spiritual Gifts	Led by Kathy Taylor
Are you curious about spiritual gifts? If so, this is the session for you. Come find out how surprisingly simple it is to use your spiritual gifts to glorify God. We will tackle some misconceptions and explore biblical truths that guide us to serve God with Abundant Hope.	Kathy is a pastor's wife from Evansville, Indiana. She and her husband Steve are in their fifteenth year at Northeast Park Baptist church. She is the mother of two nearly grown daughters and she is very close to the empty nest stage of life. (Ask her about wedding and graduation plans). Other things she can talk about non-stop are: the University of Evansville, reading books, running, knitting, and painting. She serves her church as a Youth Sunday School teacher and sings alto in the church choir.
Getting Out from Under the Big Top	Led by Terra Haisley
"Not my circus, not my monkeys." It's fun to say when you are able to step away from the drama, but what do you do when they are your monkeys, and it looks like Barnum & Bailey have pitched their tent and decided to abide with you? Let's be honest, raising children has a unique set of challenges that can leave us feeling exhausted, overwhelmed, uncertain, and alone. In this session, we will explore practical ways for moms to maintain spiritual growth, restore hope, and prioritize relationships, even when life feels out of control.	Terra serves with her husband of 29 years, Greg Haisley, at Integris Community Church in Albany, Indiana. They are currently experiencing an empty nest and enjoy being Poppy & Mamaw to four adorable grandchildren. Terra is a pediatric Occupational Therapy Assistant and the owner of TerraTime Nature Play & Learning. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, curling up with a good book, and getting out in nature.

Is There Any Hope?	Led by Pam Moran
The church is called to be the hands and feet of Christ. Are we accomplishing our call? In 2 Corinthians 1:4, Paul challenges believers to comfort those who are hurting as we have been comforted in our sufferings. We, as the church, are commanded to help those in need, whether it be spiritual, physical, or emotional. We make it a priority to help those with spiritual and physical needs, while turning a blind eye to those who are battling emotional and mental afflictions. Our goal for this breakout session, is to give hope in the midst of our own struggles as well as resources, hope and help to others in our sphere of influence. We will cover struggles including anxiety, depression, and the fear of man.	Pam is a biblical counselor and founder of Living Hope Counseling Ministries, Inc. Pam has a BS in Biblical Counseling and Religious Education and is certified through the Association of Certified Biblical Counselors (ACBC). Living Hope Counseling Ministry is founded to help hurting people find hope and healing in Christ. God’s Word gives born again believers all we need to live lives that are pleasing to God through the power of salvation and the Holy Spirit. Biblical counseling is also evangelistic in purpose; sharing the Gospel with those who come to the ministry for counseling. Pam and her husband Shawn are members of Parkside Baptist Church in Columbus Indiana. Pam and Shawn have been married 38 years and have two children, Kelley, and John, a son-in-law Jake, and a granddaughter, Audrey.
Ministries of Foster Care, Adoption and Crisis Pregnancy Centers: A Panel Discussion	Led by Chelsea Kellum
A panel of speakers wants to share their hearts on God's calling and their stories of God's leading in the areas of foster care, adoption, and crisis pregnancy intervention. Come and learn how you can personally or collectively with your church be a part of one or more of these incredible ministries.	Chelsea is a recent transplant to Indiana from the South. She is married to SCBI leader, Scooter Kellum. Together they have 4 biological kids and have the privilege of living in loved on additional children through foster care.
Parenting on Purpose: A Training Plan	Led by Susan Jablonski
When you decide to run a long-distance race it is necessary to have a training plan. Parenting is the ultimate marathon so a plan is essential. Come get pumped up to run this race of intentional parenting and leave with some practical tips that can help in discipling kids of all ages.	Susan is a mom of eight who is passionate about following Jesus and leading her little (and not-so-little!) ones to love Him too. When she and her husband, Adam, began their parenting journey over 17 years ago they had no idea the endurance required...or the joy it would bring.

Praying for and with the Nations	Led by Ella Janill
Learn how to pray with the global church for the lost, new believers, and the persecuted. Also learn how to pray for missionaries and their families as they live and work overseas.	Ella has lived and worked in North Africa and the Middle East with her husband, Jay, and their four children, Ian, Luke, Adam, and Nick for the past 10 years.
Renewing Your Mind “How-To”	Led by Leah Pratt
In Romans 12:2, God tells us to “be transformed by the renewal of your mind”—but how do we do that? Our thoughts and emotions seem to change on a whim, but God calls us to “take every thought captive to obey Christ” (1 Corinthians 10:5) since “the heart is deceitful above all things” (Jeremiah 17:9). Come learn a practical, step-by-step process whereby we can submit our thoughts and feelings to Christ and seek real change—through the power of the Spirit and the application of the Scriptures.	Leah has an MDiv from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. She has ministered to teens for 25 years—the most recent 8 teaching high school Bible at Heritage Christian School in Indy. Leah also worked in secular mental health counseling for 10 years, though she now practices biblical counseling. She also serves alongside her husband in ministry at Calvary Heights Baptist Church in Martinsville. Leah enjoys discipling, singing, thrifting, and blogging at journeytogodly.com.
Small Steps to a Healthy Marriage	Led by Chris Conrades
Marriage is a gift from God, but often we have misconceptions about marriage and how to maintain a strong relationship with our spouse. A healthy marriage does not just happen but requires intentionality and hard work. This breakout session will discuss small practical steps to building a lasting, healthy marriage.	Chris and her husband Dan have been married for 23 years this spring. They have four teenagers and live in Richmond, IN where they planted Crosspoint Church. One thing you might not know about Chris is that she has a degree in Family Studies where she focused on Marriage and Family. She is passionate about helping others build healthy marriages and families and maintaining healthy relationships.
Spiritual Fervor	Led by Terry Watts
How do we remain spiritually excited and full of godly passion no matter what situations or circumstances may appear in our lives? We are designed to shine our faith so that others may see the evidence that Jesus Christ is alive and active. Romans 12:11-12	Terry has been married for 42 years to Pastor Delbert Watts Sr, the founder of Christian Community MBC. She is the mother of 3 children and grandmother of 3 girls. She’s been an employee of Sysco Foods for 28 years. Terry has served in many ministries and loves serving the Lord however He leads her!

The Value of Woman Serving God at All Ages and Stages of Life: Panel Discussion	Led by Audrey Lee
Whether you're new to adulthood, married with children, a middle-aged empty nester, or a fabulous "Golden Girl", there's a place for you to serve. Yes, God wants you!	Audrey is a wife, a mother of two adult sons, a retired Army Officer, and a minister of the Gospel. Audrey serves on the ministerial staff of Christian Community Missionary Baptist, under the leadership of Pastor Delbert Watts, Sr. She serves in music ministry, women's and mentoring ministry, Stephen Ministry, and Sunday School. She is married to Minister Kevin B. Lee, Sr., her husband of 32 years.
The Women of Southern Baptist Disaster Relief	Led by Debbie Porter
Did you know that women play an important role in Disaster Relief efforts of the Southern Baptist Convention? Come find out the "what & hows" of women in Disaster Relief. Learn about what a "call-out" means and entails and what to expect when you serve on a team. There are many physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of those affected by Disasters and there are many roles to "plug into" to make a difference in the lives of people who are hurting. Come find out how to get involved and ask questions you have about SBC Disaster Relief!	Debbie is a lifelong Southern Baptist church member, volunteering with Disaster Relief since 2005. She was drawn to this ministry because of the desperate needs of those affected by Disasters. Her husband Everett "Butch" volunteers as well and was the state director for Illinois, and now serves as the state director in Indiana. Debbie desires to share her experiences and help others understand the "what's and how's" of Disaster Relief.
Treasure of the Heart	Led by Debbie Whidden
How do we serve God and our family without worrying about money? Come learn some practical ways to free yourself from worrying about money from a pastor's wife, mother, and business owner. Come and learn, eat chocolate, and laugh a lot along the way.	Debbie has served alongside her husband, Mitch, in ministry for over 25 years. They have 3 adult children, 2 grandchildren, and several foster grandchildren. She has been a successful business owner for 6 years. As a mom she knows how to raise kids on a shoestring budget, especially in these hard financial times.

When Brokenness Leads to Hope: How to Share the Gospel	Led by Allison Kinion
You don't have to look very far to see people, without Christ, struggling with brokenness and without hope. Come learn a simple way to share the hope of Jesus with others by starting at the point of their brokenness and need. Walk away confident and ready to share the Gospel.	Allison has served as the Director of Women's Missions and Ministry for SCBI since 2008. She also leads the student ministry and sings on the worship team at Calvary Baptist Church in Greenfield, where her husband Roger has been Senior Pastor since 2005. She has been married for 23 years and has two children—Hannah, 20 and Ruston, 17. Originally from Baton Rouge, Allison has been working in vocational church ministry for more than 25 years, having served churches of all sizes in Texas, South Carolina, Alabama, and Indiana. In her free time, she enjoys cooking, baking, canning, and spending time with her family.
Who me? A Control Freak?	Led by Dana James
Even when we know that Jesus is perfectly able and willing to hold all things together; it's not always done in the way or in the timing we think it should be done so we "help" (control)! There is a fine line between wanting things done well and with excellence and done "right" (in my eyes)! If you, like me, tend to want to control things or people or circumstances, etc. then this breakout is for you!	Dana's heart is to connect women to God's heart through the teaching of His Word. She has spoken at conferences, retreats, and events as far away as Africa and as close as her own hometown. After being a college professor and directing a corporate training center she currently loves to mentor, disciple, and teach women to know God and glorify Him with their lives. Dana was not raised in a Christian home yet is a pastor's wife, a pastor's mother, and a pastor's mother-in-law...a testament to the grace and mercy of God!
Who Will Come Behind You?	Led by Lori Jones
If you were to step away from your current ministry, would it continue or would it fizzle? What does the Bible teach us about equipping others to lead? We'll dive into Scripture and look at the qualities, calling, and equipping of a leader.	Lori's life verse is Romans 12:1-2, and it is her desire to be a living sacrifice to the Lord and to be used by Him to make disciples. Married to her favorite pastor for 42 years, together they have 2 married sons and are blessed with 6 grandchildren, affectionately called "Lori's fan club" by her husband.
Women and Work: Why Our Work Matters to God	Led by Carrie Jones
Whether you are a CEO of a company or a stay-at-home mom or somewhere in between, your work makes an eternal impact. Come be encouraged and equipped to confidently step into your God-given calling and view your work as meaningful to the kingdom of God.	Carrie is passionate about women's ministry, biblical literacy, and all things leadership. She has an M.A. from Southern Seminary and wants to see all women living out their God-given callings. Currently, she lives in Indianapolis with her husband JT and daughters Rose and Julia. She works as the Work Done Well Coordinator for Women and Work and serves alongside her husband who is an interim pastor at a growing church plant.
